DA-plakkaat skok CDP

“In ‘n stadium wat die land ‘n nood aan groter moraliteit het, kom die DA met ‘n plakkaat wat duidelik losbandigheid bevorder,” sê ds. Theunis Botha, leier van die Christen-Demokratiese Party (CDP).

“Daar is talle ander maniere waarop die DA sy nie-rassige ideaal kon uitdruk, anders as deur ‘n plakkaat wat die boodskap van seksuele losbandigheid uitdra. Dié plakkaat is walglik en ‘n belediging vir talle jong mense, wit en swart, wat ‘n hoë premie op moraliteit plaas.

“In ‘n land wat so deur Vigs en die hoë vlakke van misdaad soos die hoë voorkoms van plaasmoorde vanjaar, dra hierdie plakkaat die teenoorgestelde boodskap aan die land uit as wat dit nou nodig het.”

DA’s poster shocks CDP

“At a stage when the country needs higher levels of morality, the DA launches a poster clearly promoting sexual immorality,” says Rev. Theunis Botha, leader of the Christian Democratic Party (CDP).

“There are many ways in which the DA could have projected its image as non racial party, rather than using a poster clearly promoting sexual promiscuity. This poster is distasteful to the extreme and an insult to the many young people, black and white, who uphold high moral values.

“In a country with high levels of Aids and an overdose of crime especially the high incidence of farm murders this year, this poster sends the opposite message to the country than needed.”
