

MEDIA RELEASE
by CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (CDP)

25 FEBRUARY 2011

ANC speaks with forked tongue

“The mere fact that the ANC, amidst a spate of farm murders, have approached the court to be a party to a case related to Julius Malema’s singing of the song ‘Kill the boers,’ means that the Minister of Agriculture, Tina Joemat-Pettersson is being contradicted when she speaks of sound inter-group relations, in the agricultural field.” So says Christian democratic Party (CDP) leader, Rev. Theunis Botha.

“The ANC is speaking with a forked tongue, as it does on several occasions. In a modern society with a fast flow of information through the media and internet, the ANC is not only, not building credibility, but is tarnishing the country’s image by portraying it as a country without principles.”

“If it was not for the serious consequences of the ANC’s antics, of trying to be all things to all men ahead of this upcoming elections, it would have been comical.”

ANC span gesplete tong in “Die blote feit dat die ANC, te midde van ‘n vlaag plaasmoorde, die hof genader het om as party toegelaat te word wat verband hou met Julius Malema se sing van die liedjie, ‘Maak dood die boere,’ beteken die minister van Landbou, Tina Joemat-Pettersson, word weerspreek wanneer sy aanspraak maak op gesonde tussengroepverhoudings, ook in die landbou.” So sê die leier van die Christen-Demokratiese Party (CDP), ds. Theunis Botha.

“Die ANC praat met ‘n gesplete tong, soos wat dit gereeld doen, en in ‘n moderne samelewing waar die media en die internet vinnige inligtingsvloei verseker, lyk die ANC nie net laf in sy pogings om geloofwaardig te probeer wees nie, maar dit skaad ook die land se beeld as een sonder vaste beginsels.”

“As die gevolge nie so ernstig was nie, sou die ANC se bokspronge om voor die komende verkiesing alles vir almal te probeer wees, komies gewees het.”