

MEDIA RELEASE
by CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (CDP)

2 OCTOBER 2013 (2)

CDP ontsteld oor Jansen se opmerkings

“Die Christen-Demokratiese Party (CDP) is bekommerd oor die rektor van Kovsies, prof. Jonathan Janse se jongste opmerkings oor onder meer onderrigtaal omdat dit wetenskaplik onjuis is, en op ‘n pleidooi vir die verkragting van die grondwet neerkom.” So sê ds. Theunis Botha, leier van die CDP. “Jansen is ‘n voorste transformasiedrywer wat reeds byna alle spore van Kovsies se Christelike erfenis, soos die gebed by gradeplegtighede en die logo, verwyder het, en nou lyk dit of hy sy korrel op Afrikaans rig. As dit wat Jansen propageer werklik transformasie is, dan is transformasie ‘n euwel wat soos apartheid op die ashoop hoort.

“Ons doen ‘n beroep op Jansen om nie die grondwet te ondermyn ter wille van politieke vlieëvangery nie.”

CDP upset by Jansen’s remarks

“The Christian Democratic Party (CDP) is concerned with the latest remarks by the Kovsie vice Chancellor, Prof. Jonathan Jansen, dealing amongst others matters, with education in the mother tongue, as what he said is not scientifically sound and is at the same time, in conflict with the Constitution.” So says CDP leader, Rev. Theunis Botha.

“Jansen is a major driver of transformation, and has already wiped out almost all traces of Kovsie’s Christian heritage, such as prayer before graduation ceremonies and in the logo. Now it seems as though he has loaded his guns to take pot shots at Afrikaans. If what Jansen propagates is really transformation, then transformation is an evil and like apartheid, needs to be discarded.

“We call on Jansen not to undermine the constitution in order to gain some cheap and personal political points.”