The leader of the Christian Democratic Party (CDP) Rev Theunis Botha supports the call by Rev Kenneth Meshoe of the ACDP and numerous Christian churches and organisations all over the country, for a National day of prayer and Repentance.

Terms and conditions apply however.

The situation presently prevailing in the country is a clear indication that we are heading for a fall. Many are denying Christ and are returning to the demonic practice of ancestral worship. Others are embracing the new world religion of Interfaith.

It is clear that Repentance is absolutely essential. Repentance, however, must begin with the leaders themselves.

- Those in government who, because of their arrogance and pride, have placed the future of the country in jeopardy.
- Those in opposition who advance their liberal secular-humanist agenda with religious fervour.
- Those in Christian Parties who have put their own self-interests ahead of unity and the greater good of Christian Democracy in South Africa.
- Those in the Church who have become proud, boastful and self-sufficient but do not know that they are 'wretched, miserable, poor blind and naked'. (Rev 3:17). Those who pretending to be Christians and are leading the weak astray by encouraging them to worship at the alter of 'Baal', or in modern parlance, the alter of Interfaith.
- As far as the prayers of the people are concerned, 2 Chronicles 7:14 which we are all familiar with, applies. But so does Isaiah 1:15-17 "And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash you, make you clean: put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes, cease to do evil."
V15 is particularly note worthy, considering that more than a million, unborn babies have been murdered in their mothers' wombs since the legalisation of the callous practice of abortion. The voice of the blood of the innocents is crying out from the ground and is not only on the hands of the abortionists but on the hands of those parties that voted for this inhuman practice to be legalised and all those who support and vote for them.
- No wonder that with all the prayers that are going up, things are just gradually becoming worse. The reason is that so many that are praying have blood on their hands and God says in His word, "When you spread your hands, I will hide my face from you; Even though you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood." Deut 19:10 reads, "lest innocent blood be shed in the midst of your land which the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance and so blood-guiltiness be upon you."
- This is a clear warning by the Lord Himself in His Word and ignoring it will be to our peril.
- So yes Prayer and Repentance is necessary, for Repentance means turning from our wicked ways and turning to God who has the perfect "Plan for South Africa." Time is running out the Word from the Lord is "Turn now or face the consequences" TURN OR BURN
