ANC – a government that has failed its people

Ever wonder why it is that the Notorious Nine have allowed people to go to casinos and gyms but not to churches? One of the obvious reasons is that as an atheist communist government, one of their goals is to stop religion altogether and for the State to take its place. Another obvious reason is that at casinos and gyms people are busy gambling and working - out while at churches, where people congregate, they speak to each other - not only about spiritual things but often about political matters.

People speak to one another of:

- Not being allowed to visit their loved ones in hospitals who are admitted for one thing and then end up dying of COVERT19.
- Stage 4 load shedding, which even Pres. Ramaphosa confessed caught him off guard. Remembering that Eskom in 1990-1994 was producing more than half of Africa's power at the lowest rate in the world.
- Their dying businesses in both the formal and informal sectors as a result of inexplicable regulations.
- A government that has succeeded in the space of 27 years to destroy an economy that once was one of the strongest - if not the strongest – on the African continent and that has been relegated to junk status.
- Corruption and outright thievery of their hard earned income through excessive taxation and the exclusion of minority groups, whom they deliberately ignore in government - spending plans. While relegating them to the status of second class citizens, in spite of the fact that they are the main tax contributors.
- Inflation, especially the escalation of food prices. With their rand buying less and less. As they watch their half full trollies, and the amount payable on the cash registers adding up at a pace.
- A government that has dismally failed in reducing unemployment while their political posters lie to them about "JOBS FOR ALL".
- Not trusting the government, with protecting their lives and livelihoods against marauding murderers, rapists, robbers and thieves rampaging through the streets, often supported by the very police that are being paid to uphold the law. In South Africa, when you broke the law in the past, you were always regarded as innocent until proven guilty. Transgress one of the Notorious Nine's regulations however, and you are immediately guilty and will have to prove your innocence in a court of law at your own expense.
- The extravagant lifestyle of BEE and AA recipients, all of whom are connected ANC cadres. Those who speak of caring for the poor, as they walk through the dusty streets of informal settlements lined with "sinkplaat huisies", in their expensive designer-brand suits, shirts and shoes, having been chauffeur driven in luxury motor vehicles from their extravagant and opulent homes.

- About the banning of political activity in a local government election year when the opposition should be exposing a government that has completely failed its people.
- Government interference in their Medical Aid Schemes, trying to get them to pay for CORONA virus vaccines for the general populous, which is a government responsibility. Knowing that this means that medical aid tariffs will increase substantially.
- A Chinese woman, Dr Xiaomei Havard being appointed in the South African national assembly to replace the late Jackson Mthembu – knowing how that turned out in Australia.

And so much more.

History has taught us that Communism cannot succeed. Responsible Capitalism is the only proven answer for sustained economic growth and prosperity.

“God’s Plan for South Africa” is the only plan that ensures both.
